Pierce County Services and Funding—March Unit Meetings

By Cynthia Stewart

March unit meetings will focus on the study of Pierce County funding that was completed last Fall. The study was established as a priority at the Annual Meeting in June 2015, with the directive to:

- Define the services that Pierce County provides;
- Define the services provided by other special purpose taxing districts;
- Explain how those services are funded; and
- Determine whether the services provided are what the public wants and whether the services provided are adequately funded.

At the November unit meetings, the study team presented findings on County revenue. The March meetings will focus on services and on consensus questions (which are on page 6).

The study reviews the 2016 adopted County budget. For those interested in the 2017 budget, it provides a basic understanding of the budget structure that would also apply for 2017, even though some of the details may change. The study describes the role of County government and identifies the services provided by the County and other taxing entities within the boundaries of Pierce County.

Though its main focus is on the County’s General Fund – the County’s largest single fund with the most visibility – it also describes the Public Works & Utilities Funds because they affect the public directly in physical ways; and the Community Connections and Tacoma-Pierce County Health Departments that provide social and health services.

To prepare for these unit meetings, please review the report, which you can find at our web site, here, particularly the sections on expenditures and services.

The study committee - Paula Eismann and Nancy Pearson, co-Chairs; Roxanne Miles and Cynthia Stewart - very much looks forward to talking with all of you about its work and findings.

President's Message

In February, many of you joined the largest forum in our history for the first of three forums on Civility. A committee made up of LWVTPC members along with representatives from the ACLU, RAD, AAUW, and the NAACP organized the forums. I especially want to thank the League members who have contributed to these forums. Many thanks to LWV members, Paula Eismann, Bev Isenson, Alison McCaffree, Bill & Noel Hagens, Maralise Hood Quan, Dorothy McBride, Cynthia Stewart and Hank Tanz.

The next two sessions seem especially timely to me with the current concern about conduct at local town hall meetings. Check out the details in the flyer in this issue of The Voter.

The Board is considering ways to involve more League members in our work. Please let us know what area of our work you are interested in, and we will find a way to help you get involved.

Action Chair, Cynthia Stewart, is keeping membership informed on ways to advocate for our positions during the legislative session. As we learned at our February Unit meetings, contacting your representatives makes a difference. If you have questions or ideas, please contact Cynthia at stewdahl@comcast.net.

Huge thanks to the many volunteers who helped get the TRY out this year. See the article below for more information. This project requires so many people, and without each and every one of them, the public would not have this valuable resource.

Ruth Ann Hatchett

2017 They Represent You (TRY) Publication and Distribution

This year, 6000 TRYs (2017) were published, and about 5500 of them have been distributed to government officials and agencies, non-profit and for-profit organizations, libraries, schools, senior centers, social justice groups, political parties, churches, and public service organizations.

Thank you to Nancy Dahl, Betty Devereux, Susan Eidenschink, Charlene Franz, Lyz Kurnitz-Thurlow, and John Thurlow for gathering information for the TRY. Julie Anderson, Pierce County Auditor, and her staff sent us information for the 2017 TRY. A big thank you to John Thurlow for putting all that information in the right places in the TRY.

Proof reading was done by Nancy Dahl, Betty Devereux, Susan Eidenschink, and Lyz Kurnitz-Thurlow, which is a challenging job that is much appreciated. Distributing the TRYs is also a big job, so thank you to those of you who distributed the 2017 TRYs – Terri Baker, Susan Eidenschink, Paula Eismann, Ruth Ann Hatchett, Nancy Howe, Mary Kohli, Aviva Lemberger, Cynthia Lorch, Judy Payne, Nancy Pearson, Ginny Peterson, Julie Offner, Jo Rodman, Shan Vipond, and Judy Wood.

If you would like to help with the 2018 TRY, please contact Susan Eidenschink at susaneiden@harbornet.com or 253-365-4005. John Thurlow would like to work with some of you who are computer-savvy on the 2018 TRY. Contact John at johnthurlow@harbornet.com or 253-219-1617.

The TRY is available on our Website, www.tacomapiercelwv.org/TRY.html.

Board Highlights—January 2017

By Julie Offner

The first Board meeting of Tacoma-Pierce County League of Women Voters of 2017 was held on January 24. President Ruth Ann Hatchett shared that Ingrid Curtis had resigned from the Board due to personal circumstances. Fortunately, Ingrid will remain involved in League activities. The Board agreed that it was not necessary to appoint a new member to complete Ingrid's term, which ends in June.

Susan Eidenschink presented the Treasurer's report, informing that two new members had joined. Total membership is 123. More donations in the amount of $1,325 were received from the Finance Drive. The NE Tacoma Neighborhood Council contributed $100 in support of the forum. Additional income included $264 from the raffle at the Program Planning meeting and a $100 donation from NE Tacoma Neighborhood Council for help with a candidates forum .

The Board approved the renewal of our membership in the Affordable Housing Consortium, for $100. Board members agreed that this is a valuable alliance, as it will help advance our positions on housing.

The Board discussed leveraging the interest in League activities generated by the past election and is looking at ways to move forward with emphasis on speaking to a younger audience. The Board is also looking at approaches to mentoring new members and will ask the Membership Committee to develop a checklist of mentoring activities.

Roxanne Miles is leading fundraising and sustainability activities and has submitted several grant applications. One to the Muckleshoot Tribe is still pending.

Cheryl Mann and Julie Offner reported that the Martin Luther King Celebration was a good opportunity to engage attendees, many of whom were familiar with the work of the League. They advertised the availability of the TRY and the upcoming Forum on Civility.

The proposed new committee structure is taking shape. The next step will be to have the Executive Committee consider the proposal along with the revised committee charters and make a recommendation to the Board.

The Board considered the program planning recommendations proposed at the December meeting. Cynthia Stewart volunteered to serve on a scoping committee to investigate local homelessness for the purpose of recommending the scope of a study to begin next year. We need to know what we are getting into due to the complexities of the issue. The study is anticipated to take two years.

Pierce County Gets a New Voting System

By John Thurlow

Say goodbye to connecting arrows to mark your ballots! For the August 1 primary election, voters will mark their new ballots by showing their choices for candidates and ballot issues by filling in ovals.

Pierce County Elections will demonstrate the new ballots and aids for handicapped voters, as well as the new vote tallying system, on March 30, 5:00-7:00p.m., at the P.C. Elections Center, 2501 S. 35th St., Suite C, Tacoma. That's at the intersection with S. Steele St., near Costco. Come see what the new ballots look like and understand how the new system fosters transparent ballot handling and ballot "rescuing" or adjudication, helping to ensure that every legitimate vote is counted.

There is an announcement of the event on the P.C. Elections website here. It also shows the locations of five new ballot drop boxes.

Civility in Public Discourse- Whose Job is it, Anyway?

The February 4 forum attracted nearly 150 participants and received glowing reviews. Here are some images from that event. Many thanks to keynote speaker Amy Young, the panel, Moderator Simone Alicea, KNKX; Senator Hans Zeiger; County Councilmember Connie Ladenburg; Nate Bowling, Kimi Ginn, John Norlin and Eric Stanzyck, Educators; and Kim Bradford, Tacoma News Tribune; as well as to co-sponsors AAUW, NAACP and RAD (Restoring the American Dream). Check out the next one, March 4, on page 7.

Elected officials Connie Ladenburg and Hans Zeiger enjoy a moment between segments of the forum.

Amy Young, Assoc. Professor of Communication and Chair of the Department of Communication & Theatre, Pacific Lutheran University, gave a significant and surprising background to set the stage for dialogue.

The room was very full, but discussion was lively and civil.

At Left, Terry Bergeson was first in line to give feedback from small groups to the panel for response.

You can watch the forum here and read Amy Young's speech here.

International Women's Day—and Strike! Be Bold for Change

What would the world be without women?!

International Women's Day celebrates the social, economic, cultural and political achievement of women. Observed since the early 1900's - a time of great expansion and turbulence in the industrialized world that saw booming population growth and the rise of radical ideologies, International Women's Day is a collective day of global celebration and a call for gender parity. This year, it is March 8, and the theme is Be Bold for Change. See a history here.

This year there will not only be a celebration of women but also a women's "strike". After the women's march on January 21, many wondered what the next step would be. In early February, the organizers of the Women's March announced they would stand with the grassroots organizers putting together a one-day strike on March 8, 2017 called "A Day Without A Woman." On this day, there are three things you can do to participate:

1. Women take the day off work — whether you are paid or unpaid.
2. Refrain from shopping for the day — or if you must shop, choose small, women- and minority-owned businesses.
3. Wear red in solidarity with those participating in and supporting the strike.

There are events being planned in Seattle and Portland. For information on these, check the International Women's Day web site events page.

Lobby Day, March 21

At February's unit meetings, when League Action was discussed, some members asked about League Lobby Day. In the past, LWVWA has held a League Lobby Day at some time during the Legislature, at which local League members convene in Olympia, receive information about League issues, and then meet with their respective legislators to discuss those issues. In recent years, this was not planned because attendance became too sparse.

However, Snohomish County League conducts their own lobby day. This year, it will be March 21. If any Tacoma-Pierce County League members would like to join them, here is the plan:

- Meet in Olympia at 9:30
- Go to appointments with legislators (schedule your own here) and/or attend hearings
- Meet for lunch and review action thus far
- Conduct other meetings and attend hearings, as you can schedule.
- Leave at approximately 4:00 pm

If you would like to participate, please contact Cynthia Stewart, stewdahl@comcast.net; and she will connect you with the Snohomish County group. Reservations must be made no later than March 14, in order for the lunch to be arranged for all. Cynthia can also help arrange meetings with LWVWA Lobby Team members, if you are interested. In that Please provide that information as well as your indication of interest in lunch.

Consensus Questions for Pierce County Budget Study

Please refer to the study, which is at our web site here.

PART I: Referring to the table on page 36 (Appendix C) of the report, which services do you feel should receive more attention and funding?

PART II: Prioritize the top three under-funded services/departments.

PART III: For each of the prioritized under-funded services/departments, which strategies should be used to increase funding?

1. Seek additional state & federal funding and only provide services if funded
2. Seek to repeal the 1% restriction on property tax growth
3. Add more taxing authority to the County, to meet or exceed what is available to Cities
4. Reduce other County services (or restrict % allocations) so underfunded services the public is requesting receive greater attention, without increasing any taxes
5. Increase special districts and dedicated funding streams to protect priority services, even if that reduces the overall general fund of the County
6. Other: (Please specify)

PART IV: The most important role the League of Women Voters can play to affect local Pierce County funding decisions is to:

1. Invest in materials and a campaign to educate voters on how taxes are distributed and used and the voter behaviors and decisions that impact County revenues and services.
2. Work through the State League and Legislature to increase tax options for Counties
3. Work through the State League and Legislature to remove the 1% restriction on property tax growth placed on the Counties, since they are most reliant on that funding stream compared to the State and Cities
4. Evaluate tax-exempt lands (such as non-profit hospitals, private schools, churches, other non-profits, tribal lands and federal installations) and make a case to change exemption status so more is collected from those not currently contributing property tax.
5. Encourage a change in County budgeting by challenging the County through broader citizen outreach to adopt a method for allocation of resources based on voter priorities instead of Executive and Council determinations.
6. Other: (Please specify)

Legislative Update – Take Action

By Susan Eidenschink

Have you been receiving the weekly LWVWA Legislative Newsletter, which is sent to your email every Sunday? It has the logo at right. If so, have you contacted your Legislators to tell them how you feel about a bill or more than one bill?

I was not receiving the newsletter for several Sundays, and I found out that the system that is used to send out the Legislative Newsletter did not work well with @harboret.net. To remedy this, I logged on here and signed up for the newsletter using my gmail account. And I then received the next newsletter.

The LWVWA system works well with gmail, as do several other systems that receive email from sources that send email to many users. You can also look on the LWVWA website, to access the Legislative Newsletter.

February 17 was the first cut-off date in this year's Legislative Session. Several bills were not voted out of their committees of origin; therefore, they have little chance of becoming law during this year. However, there were several bills that did pass out of their committees of origin. Some of these bills that are supported by the League are listed below. You have the power to make changes in the laws of our state, so take action!

Civic Education

- HB 1986 and SB 5668 will help teachers in Washington State to learn to use new tools of civic learning while teaching about how federal, state, tribal, and local governments work. This bill could increase the usage of The State We're In – Washington. This will help students actively participate in their communities.

Climate Change, Energy, and Natural Resources

- HB 1429 creates an Aquatic Invasive Species Management Account which provides funding for aquatic invasive species enforcement programs.
- HB 1611 and SB 5462 address filling the policy gaps of our prevention, preparedness, and response program for crude oil transport.
- SB 5546 instructs the DNR to create an assessment of fire-prone lands and respective forest health

Empowering all Washingtonians to engage in a more responsible & responsive democracy treatments, including prescribed burning and thinning, to remove forest floor fuels and establish forest resilience.

Criminal Justice

- HB 1529 and SB 5073 will improve the Deadly Force Law based on recommendations of the Joint Legislative Task Force on the Use of Deadly Force in Community Policing.
- HB 1298 (Fair Chance Act) prohibits an employer from including any question on an application for employment, from enquiring either orally or in writing, from receiving information about an applicant's criminal record until after the employer initially determines that the applicant is otherwise qualified for the position.

Democracy: Elections, Voting Rights & Campaign Finance

- SB 5019 establishes prepaid postage for ballots, which eliminates the poll tax of buying a stamp in order to mail in a ballot.
- SB 5192 extends the time period for voter registration to the same day as the election. The voter would complete a provisional ballot which would be counted if and when their voter registration was confirmed.

Education

Three plans are now on the table to fully fund education: the Governor's Budget, the Senate's Funding Bill, and the House's Funding Bill (HB 1843).

- The Senate bill, SB 5607, would replace money collected from local school levies with revenue from an increase to the statewide property tax.
- The House bill, HB 1843, focuses on where additional state dollars would be invested. This bill would boost starting salaries for new teachers to
